Promoting youth employment in remote areas in Jordan -(Job Jo)

598428-EPP-1-2018-1-JO-EPPKA2-CBHE-JP

Based on the training needs that provide foundation to get and keep a job to achieve best results (JOB-JO main objective), AHU has set up series of training courses for final year students and unemployed and employed individuals in collaboration with employers of different sectors. The Alumni Association of AHU is a strategic partner in implementing these courses based on their work experience and success stories.

1. workshop on Poverty and Unemployment – Role of Higher Education Institutions to help lower down this problem particularly in the Southern Remote Areas.

Workshop with Zain Telecommunication Company

22nd'Oct'2019

- The College of Business Administration and Economics in collaboration with Job-Jo Project Management, has organized a workshop on Poverty and Unemployment – Role of Higher Education Institutions to help lower down this problem, particularly in the Southern Remote Areas.

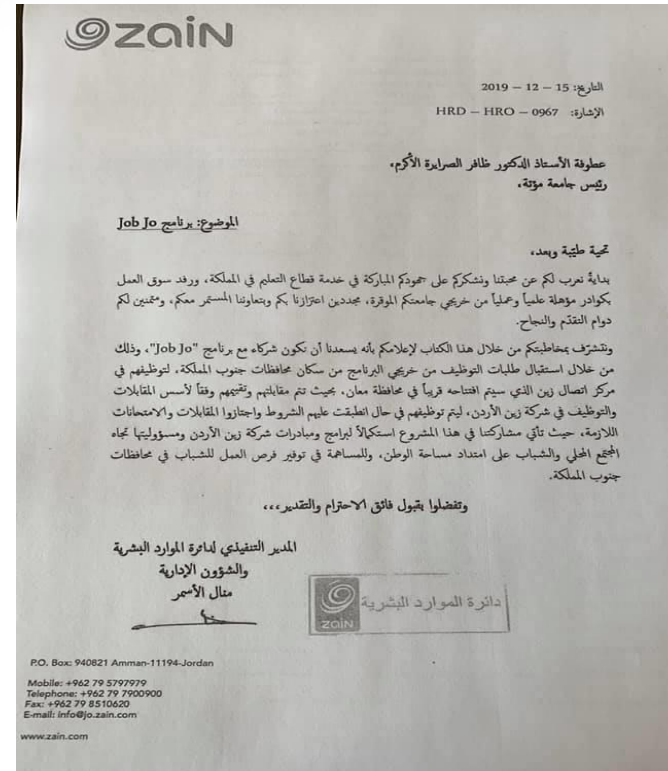

- Representatives from Zain Telecommunication Company attended the workshop as a strategic partner in the Jordanian Labor Market. It was a great opportunity to have them at the workshop where they have announced their intention to open a call center at Ma'an during 2019 which will create job opportunities for graduates from Southern Governorates in collaboration with Job_Jo project management. An official letter has been sent to Job_Jo management in this regard.

- Thank you for your efforts, we are glad to be partner with Job Jo project, we are ready to receive job applications of fresh graduates of Southern Governorates through Job-Jo project to employ them at the Call Center to be founded in Maan
