About the Journal

Jordan Journal of Energy (JJE)

JJE aims to provide a highly readable and valuable addition to the literature in the field of energy to reflect the evolving needs of the energy sector. All energy-related research is in scope, including interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary studies. The journal will serve as an indispensable reference tool for years to come. The journal's scope includes all new theoretical and experimental findings that cover a wide range of topics in energy. JJE aims to strengthen relations between the energy sector, research laboratories, and universities. All the manuscripts must be prepared in English and are subject to a rigorous and fair peer-review process.

Submission Requirements

You must read and acknowledge that you've completed the requirements below before proceeding.

- The submission has not been previously published, nor is it before another journal for consideration (or an explanation has been provided in Comments to the Editor).
- The submission file is in OpenOffice, Microsoft Word, or RTF document file format.
- Where available, URLs for the references have been provided.
- The text is single-spaced; uses a 12-point font; employs italics, rather than underlining (except with URL addresses); and all illustrations, figures, and tables are placed within the text at the appropriate points, rather than at the end.
- The text adheres to the stylistic and bibliographic requirements outlined in the Author Guidelines.

Comments for the Editor

Rich text editor toolbar with icons for undo, redo, bold, italic, underline, link, unlink, list, code, image, and insert. Below the toolbar is a large empty text area for entering comments.
